Thank you for your interest in being an instructor at the Porcupine Mountains Folk School. The School is run by the Friends of the Porkies in cooperation with the Porcupine Mountains Wilderness State Park. The Friends is a non-profit organization whose mission is to enhance the visitor park experience. The Folk School provides a friendly, nurturing environment in the heart of a 60,000-acre wilderness, where people come to enhance their lives by learning traditional arts and skills as well as to gain a deeper appreciation of the diverse natural and cultural resources found in the Porkies. If you are interested in becoming an instructor, please send your class proposal to the enclosed address. (The Folk School has running water, a kitchen stove, refrigerator, electricity, tables, chairs, and a wood stove to heat the room.) Once we receive your proposal, it will be reviewed by the Folk School Committee, and we will contact you. Thank you very much for considering this opportunity. We look forward to hearing from you.
